ET1137: Professional Skills - II

(Credit-1)

Semester: IV

Rationale: In placement-oriented professional courses like engineering and technology, communicative competence and proficiency in English plays a crucial role. The course Professional Skills-II is designed to familiarize learners with the various kinds of language usage in a professional scenario. In a professional set-up, it is essential that individuals are able to articulate and conduct themselves effectively and appropriately. Hence, imparting training to students to enable them to become competent language users and well-groomed professionals is an indispensable part of an engineering and technology program. Professional Skills training is an emphatic step towards making them industry-ready. Speaking skills, especially in English, in a practical industrial atmosphere is a must-be developed skill in an academic centre of higher learning. The sessions need to be principally activity-based to drive the purpose of the course towards better fulfillment.

Catalog Description: The course is divided into three units. The first two units acquaint learners with the two skills of learning English, i.e. Listening & Speaking skills. The third unit focuses on the enrichment of vocabulary.

Pre-requisites: Intermediate to advanced level proficiency in English.

Course Outline:

Unit-I: Listening Skills

(4 Lectures)

Audio-visual activity; Dictation; Identifying sounds and ideas; etc.

Unit-II: Speaking Skills

(10 Lectures)

Discussion on various topics: random as well as preset / General Extempore, Business Extempore, Science and Arts Extempore/ Elocution competition / One act play / Mock interviews / Skit / Role-play / Information gap activity / Mingling activity / Radio jockey, etc.

Unit - III: Vocabulary Building:

(6 Lectures)

Crosswords/ Editing activities/ Gap filling activity / Scrabbles/ Spell bees

Other Activities: Ice breakers: Chinese Whispers; Tongue twisters.

(4 Lectures)

Five-minute activities: Hangman, Star of my life, Backs to the board.

Follow up activity: Group discussion, Ad/Jingle/Short movie making, etc.

N.B.: The instructors can come-up with activities other than the above-mentioned ones. All the sessions need to be activity-based so as to make the classes more productive and successful. Active and euphoric participation is to be encouraged.

The sessions are to be based on an advanced level than the IIIrd semester curricula.
